

What does the term Preamble refer to?
introduction or preface to the Constitution

What is the significance of the Preamble?
its components

What is the source of the Constitution?
the people of India

What are the terms in the Preamble that suggest the nature of the state?
sovereign, socialist, secular, democratic and republic

When was the date of adoption of the Indian Constitution?
November 26, 1949

What is the philosophy of the Indian Constitution reflected in?
the Preamble

What is sought to be emphasized by the use of the word Sovereign in the Preamble?
independence of India earned through struggle for independence

What amendment inserted the word Socialist in the Preamble?
the 42nd Amendment

What did the same amendment insert the word Secular to reflect?
secular nature of Indian society

What does the word Republic in the Preamble indicate?
India has an elected head, though indirectly elected, the Indian President is the choice of the people of India

Who have resorted to the use of the concepts like justice, liberty, equality and fraternity?
Constitution framers

What provisions do the Constitution framers have resorted to?
Fundamental Rights

What is guaranteed to the individuals through the provision of Fundamental Rights?
Liberty

The unity and integrity of the nation is sought to be secured by what?
the use of the word Fraternity in the Preamble and by the provisions of fundamental duties and single citizenship in the Constitution

What does the use of the words in the Preamble show that it embodies?
basic philosophy and fundamental values

What are the dreams and aspirations of?
founding fathers of the Constitution

Who did the claim that the Constitution is derived from?
the people

SUMMARY

The term Preamble refers to the introduction or preface to the Constitution . The Preamble contains the date of adoption of the Indian Constitution on November 26, 1949 . The Gandhian ideals are aimed to be secured by the incorporation of the word Socialist in the PREAMble by the 42nd Amendment . Indias aim is to build up a democratic political system but also a democratic social system . The Preamble emphasizes justice, liberty, equal protection and fraternity as political ideals . The ideal of liberty aims at ensuring these freedoms which make men really free . The idea of equality is aimed at removing discriminations between citizens .